

Becoming a Member of:

THE GUILD OF MASTER PLUMBERS

AND / OR

THE GUILD OF MASTER TILERS

The Guild of Master Plumbers & The Guild of Master Tilers, support and promote excellence in quality and training.

Our application procedure ensures the highest standards. Ensuring that both the regulated tradesman and their customers are both supported. We only select the best tradesmen to join the membership organisation. As part of our continuing efforts within the industries, we allow customers full transparency of your qualifications and skills.

The memberships are banded, in view of your relevant skills and qualifications. These bands are shown on our website, so that your customers are able to check the authenticity of your membership status.

Not only do we strive to assist our tradesmen with customer relations, we offer a wide variety of internal support.

As part of your membership package, you will receive free of charge technical advice, from trained and experienced personnel. Furthermore, you will have accountancy support on hand 24/7 for any of those Taxation / Accountancy queries you may have along your way.

As part of your package you will also receive:

- Use of our corporate imagery on your stationery / business paperwork
- Membership card (to verify to your customers)
- Listing on our website, www.theguildofmasterplumbers.co.uk
- Discounts on courses and updates at the Plumbing and Construction College

As optional extra's you may wish to purchase, polo shirts, stickers or text books along with your membership, for future information, please see the order form.
